EDISON STATE COLLEGE

Center for Professional Development

Watercolor Painting- Intermediate

Learn more beautiful watercolor painting!

You will learn six specific techniques and objectives taught through painting a different subject each week. If you've painted a bit and are now ready to expand your horizons and try a few new things, this is for you. Enjoy learning through creation of such compositions as a moonlit night,(pictured above,) a rural landscape at sunrise, a snowstorm in the woods, and a close-focus floral.

Intended for those who may have taken "Beginning Watercolor" or comparable instruction and have a modest acquaintance with the materials and basic techniques. Your instructor will give individual assistance as needed and demonstrates by painting at each session.

This is Phil's new "intermediate watercolor", as it's not a repeat of what I did the first time, but moves on into more about technique and specific design or composition challenges, such as a whole class on how to paint clouds, another on water, reflections and waves, etc.

Materials:
(These are in addition to the materials for Beginners)
I page of very rough sandpaper
One small cellulose sponge
Masking fluid and brown packing tape
Water spray bottle
Safety Razor blades
Several sheets of 140 lb Arches cold press paper 11" X 14"

Dates: Thursday's (6 weeks)

- October 20th – December 1st, 2011

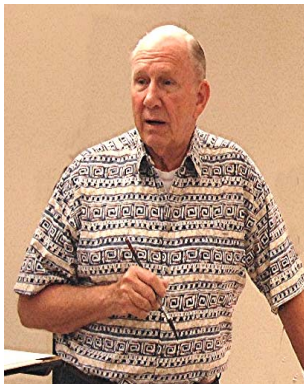
(Campus Closed November 24th, 2011)

Time: 6:00pm – 9:00pm

Cost: $180.00 (Plus Materials)

Location: Edison State College, Lee Campus, room to be announced

Instructor: Phil Hilton



Philip Hilton has focused exclusively on watercolor for the past 28 years. His formal education includes a BSS degree from Ohio University, and courses from The Cleveland Institute of Art and the Universities of Iowa, North Dakota and Kansas. He is currently an award winning artist and a signature member of the Florida Watercolor Society. He has recently lectured, taught and given demonstrations in watercolor painting at Shell Point and other area retirement communities. Phil has also authored "Watercolor For Beginning Students" available at Amazon.com, as well as having taught calligraphy and beginning painting. Visit his website at www.Philswatercolors.com

Seats are limited, so register today!
Advance registration and payment is required
For registration form and information, call 239-489-9235, email celee@edison.edu
OR download from www.edison.edu/lee/ce