

Center for Continuing Education

Acting with Scene Study

Students will learn and participate in the fundamentals of Method Acting as developed and practiced at the Actors Studio in New York and Los Angeles. Participants will focus on developing a “truthful” inner life. Scene Study and Scene Work will also be taught to beginning acting students and to those who have had prior acting experience and who would like to learn the “Method” approach to “Truth” in acting. Audition procedures, cold reading, and differences between Film and Stage acting will also be addressed.

Dates: Tuesdays (8 week session)

- April 24 – June 12, 2012

Time: 5pm – 8pm

Cost: $260.00 (maximum of 10 persons per class)

Location: Edison State College, Lee Campus, room to be announced

Instructor: Joseph Richman-former member of The Actors Studio Playwright and Directors Unit in New York, under Lee Strasberg and Harold Clurman. Mr. Richman was also a member of The Actors Studio’s creative Process Unit under Arthur Penn and Estelle Parsons. By invitation, Mr. Richman was a member of the Directors Unit of the Neighborhood Playhouse (founded by Sanford Meisner) in New York and also a member of the Dramatist Guild.

Seats are limited, so register today! Advance registration and payment is required
For registration form and information, call 239-489-9235,
Email celee@edison.edu OR download from www.edison.edu/lee/ce

Requests for refund one week prior to the first class meeting will be granted. If you have a Higher One card through Edison the refund will be transferred to your Higher One Account. Due to the short-term nature of most Continuing Education programs, refunds will not be granted on or after the first class meeting.