

Center for Professional Development

Decorative and Faux Finishes

Decorative or faux finishes are a great way to create mood, warmth, and elegance to a room, or to section off a seating or dining area in open area. They can also be used to accent a wall or ceiling area. In this course students will how learn to create simple yet elegant finishes to more complex finishes including brick or stone walls. The techniques used to create textures such as marble, wood, metal, will also be covered. This class is suited for all levels from the student who desires to become a professional, or for the artist at heart who wants to create their own unique space at home.

Dates: Tuesdays (8 week sessions)
• October 5th – November 23rd, 2010

Time: 9am-12pm

Cost: $180 Plus Materials (List supplied at registration)

Location: Edison State College, Lee Campus, room to be announced

Instructor: Catherine Lucas- Catherine Lucas is a painter in the realist tradition. Her artistic education includes a BFA from Hofstra University in New York, and an MFA from New York Academy of Art in New York City. At the New York Academy of Art, Catherine studied with accomplished figurative artists, Steven Assael, Harvey Citron, Patrick Connors, Jon DeMartin, Martha Erlebacher, Alyssa Monks, and Edward Schmidt. After receiveing her Masters degree, she continued her studies in classical realism under the tutelage of Anthony Ryder at the Ryder Studio School in Santa Fe NM. Her paintings are exhibited in New York, Santa Fe and Florida. Catherineann.com

Seats are limited, so register today!
Advance registration and payment is required

For registration form and information, call 239-489-9235, email
celee@edison.edu
OR download from www.edison.edu/lee/ce