ESOL for Haitians in the Workforce

This course is offered to native Haitian speakers. It is designed to improve the English language skills of Haitians who work in health care, hospitality, construction, or any other field in our community.

The instructor will facilitate translation and comprehension of specific matters related to their line of work. This course provides students with ample opportunity to apply techniques and skills through a series of English translation assignments which form the basis for class discussion. Students will receive a certificate for completing this course.
