

EDISON STATE COLLEGE

Center for Professional Development

Financial Repair Strategies for Uncertain Times - What Do I Do Now?

Recent events in the market and the overall uncertainty in the economy have forced many individuals to re-evaluate retirement and their standard of living. This workshop will highlight unique and key financial repair strategies that protect and enhance income and wealth. The course will also clarify the language of investments and methods to protect against financial fraud. Additionally, the workshop will address Alternative Investment, Annuity and Fixed Income strategies applicable during these turbulent economic times.

Dates: April 2010, Dates TBA

Time: 10:00am to 12::00 noon

Cost: $85 (spouses free)
Lunch included after each session (ticket provided $10 value for each session)

Location: Edison State College, Lee Campus, room to be announced

Instructor: Leo D. Boisvert, MBA, CIMA is the Managing Partner and Chief Financial Strategist for Private Wealth Consultants, an independent Comprehensive Wealth and Tax Management firm. Mr. Boisvert speaks and lectures nationally on topics concerning Wealth Protection, Asset Management, Retirement Planning, Income Planning, as well as Financial Risk Management. Mr. Boisvert is one of only 3000 graduates of the University of Pennsylvania -

Wharton School, CIMA Certification Program (Certified Investment Management Analyst).

Seats are limited, so register today!

Advance registration and payment is required

For registration form and information, call 239-489-9235, email celee@edison.edu

OR download from www.edison.edu/lee/ce