

Center for Professional Development Foreign Policy Association “Great Decision” Series

The Foreign Policy Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to inspiring the American public to learn more about the world. Founded in 1918, The Foreign Policy Association serves as a catalyst for developing awareness, understanding of and providing informed opinions on global issues. Through its balanced, nonpartisan programs and publication, the FPA encourages citizens to participate in the foreign policy process.

This eight week course will provide an overview of the main international issues facing us. The format is a 30 minute video presentation on the subject followed by 45-60 minutes of town hall style discussion with a moderator present who is a specialist in the subject.
