Switching from Windows

PC to MAC

Windows users who are contemplating or have made the change to Mac might have a number of questions. Instructor Ryan Roark answers all these questions, and many more, in switching from Windows to the Mac Course. He explores not only the software-MAC OS X Leopard and its bundled applications, but also important hardware subjects. Like keyboard and mouse differences, and how to work with cameras and other peripherals.

Requirement: You must bring your own Mac to class with you.
