

Center for Professional Development Wedding and Event Planning Certification

Edison State College presents the "Wedding and Event Planning Certification Course"

Getting married someday? Want to know the secrets the professionals don't want you to know? Or would you like to be part of a recession proof industry and get paid well for doing what you love? Space is limited so don't miss this exciting, informative, and interactive class! In addition to our classroom hours, you will be actively observing, participating, traveling to, visiting, viewing, tasting, experiencing, and practicing matters related to weddings and events!

This 40-hour course will help you with things such as:

- how to get your website up and running
- obtaining proper licensure
- effective marketing,
- floral arranging
- how and what to charge for your services, and so much more.

We will also include social events such as Quinceanero, Sweet 16, Anniversaries and Corporate Events.

You will be introduced to multiple wedding vendors, qualified industry professionals, and visit gorgeous venues. You will also hear first hand stories from an experienced wedding professional... all of which will give you first hand knowledge of what to expect as you embark on this exciting journey!

Tuition includes: Class Sessions, Resource materials and handouts, entry fees to industry shows, project fees, and certification from Edison State College.
