

EDISON STATE
COLLEGE

Center for Professional Development

How to Get Published

Learn the most effective steps and techniques for getting published, whatever your specialty. This inspiring workshop is designed to give you a professional understanding of both the writing and publishing sides. Among the topics covered include:

- an overview of the market
- creating query letters that motivate editors or publishers to request a manuscript submission
- basic journalism skills
- manuscript presentation
- the basics of writing articles
- a novel synopsis and nonfiction book proposal
- targeting the right editors and agents
- learn the top reasons editors say no, and how to avoid them

The instructor offers examples and helpful critiques. By the end of the class, students can expect to have a completed project ready to submit. The instructor has been a professional writer for 20 years. She has published widely in many magazines and newspapers, and conducts a variety of writing and publishing workshops.

Dates: Four Wednesdays TBA

Time: 6pm - 8:30 p.m.

Cost: $270 including materials

Location: Edison College, Lee Campus, room to be announced

Instructor: TBA

Seats are limited, so register today!

Advance registration and payment is required

For registration form and information, email celee@edison.edu

OR download from www.edison.edu/lee/ce