

Center for Continuing Education

Scrapbooking Class for Beginner to Advance Students

In this four week class, students will develop skills in various scrapbook methods using rubber stamping, embossing, ribbons, paint, decoupage, stickers, rub-ons, punches, sprays, and more.

Each student will complete a mini-album in the first class which will introduce techniques. For the last three classes, students will work on and complete the 8x8 album. The completed albums will be ready to fill with photos or give to that special loved one as a gift.

Dates: Thursdays (4 weeks)
 • March 15 – April 5, 2012

Time: 6:00pm – 8:00pm

Cost: $130
 A supply list will be provided for students to purchase

Location: Edison State College, Lee Campus, room to be announced

Instructor: Amanda Gavini – Amanda has been involved in paper crafts for all of her life. She was an Art major in college and works in the garment industry. She has taught classes for the past 5 years to local groups and enjoys meeting and teaching students excited to learn new techniques in the paper arts world.

Seats are limited, so register today!

Advance registration and payment is required

For registration form and information, call 239-489-9235, email celee@edison.edu OR download from www.edison.edu/lee/ce

Requests for refund one week prior to the first class meeting will be granted. If you have a Higher One card through Edison the refund will be transferred to your Higher One Account. Due to the short-term nature of most Continuing Education programs, refunds will not be granted on or after the first class meeting.